

ACC Fact Sheet

These are tools and points we have presented in different fora and media in order to let a European public sphere emerge

We do hope members will multiply our ideas within their local languages and media - copy, paste, translate, sign, forward....

1. Act on European Community Colleges (tool): The "Act" was composed as a very concrete contribution to the debate on how to allow European Community Colleges to emerge. The authors are Andrzej Pater, Warsaw, Anna Nielsen, Ølstykke, Dainis Lasmanis, Riga, Dasa Bolcina, Trieste, Eva Valvo, Rome, Helena Soares Silva, Brussels, Jan-Christoph Napierski, Berlin, John Petersen, Århus, Klara Tjernberg, Stockholm, Levente Geczi, Brasov, Linda Jakobson, Riga, Ljupco Efremov, Kratovo, Marzia Pistolesi, Ponsacco, Mjellma Mehmeti, Skopje, Orsolya Arros, Odorheiu, Peter Ciaccio, Rome, Rebecca Pavon de Paz, Collado Villalba, Sandra Salmina, Riga, Siebren de Boer, Stockholm, and Silvia Cardi, Pisa.
http://www.acc.eu.org/uploads/REVISED_ACT04.pdf

2. Community College Foundation (tool): This is an integrated part of the Act on European Community Colleges.
http://www.acc.eu.org/uploads/REVISED_ACT04.pdf

3. "Action 6": A number of principles formulated in a letter to the Ministers of Education and Youth of all Europe. The title "Action 6" referred to the fact, that we imagined a new Action within the EU-Youth programmes. However, the principles are valid in many contexts.
<http://www.acc.eu.org/uploads/Thessalonikiletter.pdf>

4. ACC opinion on the representativeness of European civil society: Addressing the problem, that the European Economic and Social Committee (ECOSOC) wants permanent dialogue with the Civil Societies of Europe - except with European organisations!
http://www.acc.eu.org/uploads/ACC_opinion.pdf

5. ACC letter supporting the campaign for a statute for a European association: Allowing European organisations to act as European (and not just as registered in one state) would be a major boost for the emergence of a European public sphere.
http://www.acc.eu.org/uploads/MEP_letter.doc